Thank You!!!

With grateful heart, I wish to THANK all of you who joined me and wished me well on the celebration of the 25th Anniversary of my Priestly Ordination. Your beautiful cards with heartwarming messages, together with your nice and generous gifts made me so jubilant and blessed! I wish to thank as well the people who made my Anniversary Supper a delightful success. You are all God's gifts to me, wrapped in splendent and diverse ways. For everything – to God be the glory!

Sincerley, Father Alan

No Earlies....PLEASE!

100 years ago, our Blessed Mother appeared to three children in Fatima, Portugal. She revealed her name and her identity as Our Lady of the Rosary. In the six times that she appeared, she repeated the message: Pray the rosary. All are invited to join in praying the rosary on Wednesday, October 18 at 6:30pm. Fellowship will follow in the church hall.

St. Michael's School is looking for donations of used Halloween costumes. Our students wear clothing anywhere from a size 3T to a size 10 kids. If you have any costumes to donate, we would ask that you kindly drop them off at St. Mary's Parish or at St.

Michael's School. Thanks so much!

Food for Your Journey – Heaven for the Humorist

There is the story of an Irishman who died suddenly and went up for divine judgement. He felt very uneasy, for he didn't think he had done much good on earth. There was a long line of people ahead of him, so he settled down to look and listen.

After consulting his big book, Christ said to the first man in line, "I see here that I was hungry and you gave me to eat. Good on you! Go on into heaven."

To the second he said, "I was thirsty and you gave me to drink," and to the third, "I was in prison and you visited me."

And so it went on. As each man ahead of him was sent to heaven, the Irishman examined his conscience and felt that he had a great deal to fear. He'd never given anyone food or drink, and he hadn't visited prisoners or the sick.

Then his turn came. Trembling, he watched Christ examining the book. Then Christ looked up and said, "Well, there's not much written here; but you did do something: I was sad and discouraged and depressed and you came and told me funny stories which made me laugh and cheered me up. Get along to heaven..."

This story makes the point that no form of charity should be undervalued or neglected.

A Smile for Your Journey – Sunday Stupor

Miss Gladys was a regular fixture in morning worship at First Church. On this one particular morning the pastor's message went on forever. Some in the congregation dozed off.

Following the service, she walked up to a very sleepy looking visitor to welcome him. "Hello, I'm Gladys Dunn."

To which the visitor replied, "You're not the only one."

CWL Christmas Tea & Bazaar

The annual CWL tea and bazaar is fast approaching on November 19! The convenors are Mitzi Armstrong - 275-9905 and Evelyn Rawn - 276-8507 and Kim LePine - 275-7832.

The sub-convenors are in place and will be contacting you for your help. Please contact us if you have anything to offer. We look forward to another fun and successful tea and bazaar. (There will be sticky buns for sale!)

Get your 50/50 tickets before they sell out!

(Please remember to turn in your sold tickets the week of October 30th.)

Calling all bakers!

We don't want to bother you with phone calls, but we need your donations for the CWL Bazaar Bake Table. Please accept this as your invitation to contribute cakes, cookies, bars, tarts, breads and pies. We are always happy to receive pickles, jams, relishes, perogies and cabbage rolls. All donations are most welcome. Please pass this information along to friends and family. Donations may be dropped off in the church basement on the afternoon of November 18th and before/after mass on November 18th and 19th. Call Shari at 274-7410 or Jenny at 274-9264 with questions. Thank you!
