Food for Your Journey - Maturity and Balance

The managing director of a very large business was sitting in his New York office talking to a customer. Suddenly a secretary rushed into the room carrying a handful of impressive documents, and evidently very upset about something. He talked very fast and excitedly and non-stop, trying to impress upon his boss the desperate nature of the problem.

Finally, the boss managed to get a word in edgewise and said, "Jones, don't forget rule three."

The secretary looked startled, and then with a smile, folded his papers and left the room.

Overcome with curiosity, the waiting customer asked the business manager about that rule number three.

"Rule three," said the managing director, is: "Don't take yourself too seriously."

"What are rules one and two?" asked the customer.

"There are no other rules in this business," the manager replied, "only rule three

A Smile for Your Journey - Doggone Good

Little Jason was practicing his violin to play a solo in church, and the torturous noise was making the dog howl. Upstairs, the boy's father was trying to work. After trying to put up with the combined racket of the violin and the dog for twenty minutes, the father finally called down, "Jason. Can't you play something the dog doesn't know?"

GARAGE SALE ITEMS: The youth are planning a garage sale to assist with the Discovery Camp budget and other needs. If you would like to contribute to a good cause, call Kenny Desjardins at 276-4079 for pick up or drop off. Thank you for your support.
