ADULT FAITH FORMATION PROGRAM: THE MASS

Mass can be confusing! With people standing, sitting, standing again, now kneeling, and periodically marking themselves with the sign of the cross, the way we worship in the Mass can, from an outsider's perspective, look like Catholic calisthenics. For many people who grew up with the Mass, we could recite the prayers from the Mass in our sleep. But do we really understand what we are saying when we address Jesus as "Lamb of God", or cry out "Holy, Holy, Holy Lord"? Or are we repeating things robotically every Sunday, unaware of the significance of these prayers and thus unable to give ourselves to God as fully as we could through them? Come join us as we make a biblical tour through the Mass, from the opening sign of the cross to the closing "Thanks be to God". Program will commence on Thursday, November 1st @6:30pm for an hour. It will run every Thursday for 5 weeks. Coffee, tea and dainties will be served. See you!

The EDGE youth had a great night of activity at St. Michael's school for our monthly sports night! Thank you to the leaders who came out to enjoy some exercise and fun! I would like to thank the Hendrixx family for donating pumpkins to the EDGE group so they could all carve out a jack-o-lantern! Have a safe Hallowe'en! Our next EDGE will be at St. Mary's Nov 1st.

Our next Youth Mass and Life Teen night is November 10th. Hope to see you there!

Food for Your Journey - Family Forgiveness

In his night prayer, the six-year-old stopped before his brother's name and said to his mother, "I don't think I'll ask God to bless Joe. He gave me an awful punch in the nose today."

"But you've got to forgive your enemies," mother reminded him.

"But," countered the little boy, "that's just the trouble: he's NOT my enemy. And that's why I can't forgive."

How true it is that it is harder to forgive one's friends than one's enemies.

A similar case happened in another family. The three children had gotten into a loud disagreement just before they went off to bed. They were aroused at two in the morning by a terrific thunderstorm.

Hearing an unusual noise from the bedroom, the mother went up to see what was going on. All the children were out of bed and hidden in the dark clothes closet. And from the inside, a little voice told her, "We're all afraid, and we're hidden here in the dark, forgiving each other."

A Smile for Your Journey - A Misunderstanding

Two church attenders had just come from church and a sermon on Sodom and Gomorrah from Genesis. "You know, George, I always thought that Sodom and Gomorrah were man and wife."

His Friend replied, "I can believe you, because I thought the Epistles were the wives of the Apostles."
