This past week the EDGE youth looked at the bible passage Ecclesiastes 4:9-12 that reminds us that two are better than one. They played a game that required team work and we talked about Accountability. Realizing that good friends are there for us when we need them and we should be there for our friends, loving, praying and supporting them!

Our next EDGE is a Sports night at St. Michael's with the Life Teens on Nov 22!

Our next Youth Mass and Life Teen night is November 10th. Hope to see you there!

Food for Your Journey - Constructive Criticism

I was coaching my son in tennis. He tossed up the ball, swung his racket and his first serve landed right in the net.

"You're hitting into the net," I called.

He shifted his stance, took a different grip on the racket handle, and tried again. Same result.

"It's going into the net," I told him again.

He glared at me and made another try.

"Still going into the net," I said pleasantly.

He flung the racket to the ground. "Look," he told me. "I can see that it's going into the nets as well as you can. You don't need to sound like a broken record about it. Tell me what to do to keep it from going into the net!"

A Smile for Your Journey - Lesson in Forgiveness

"Forgive your enemies" was the topic of the reverend's sermon on this particular Sunday morning. At the close of his rather long message, he asked how many were willing to forgive their enemies. About half of his congregation raised their hands.

Not satisfied, he preached for another twenty minutes and repeated the question. This time a few more lifted their hands.

Still unsatisfied he lectured another fifteen minutes and repeated the question. Now, all raised their hands except one elderly lady on the back row. "Miz Jones, aren't you willing to forgive your enemies?" the pastor inquired.

"I don't have any" was her answer.

"Miz Jones, that's very unusual. How old are you?"

"Ninety-three."

"Miz Jones, please come down front and tell this congregation how a person can live ninety-three years and not have an enemy in the world."

The sweet little lady tottered down the aisle, very slowly turned around, and announced, "It's easy. I just outlived 'em all!"

Thank you to everyone for their prayers and good wishes. So far so good! A walking, talking miracle! I have been well blessed thanks to you and our merciful God!
