Salt & Light Food for Your Journey - Worries

An old story tells of an angel who met a man carrying a heavy sack on his back and he asked him what was in it.

"My worries," said the man.

"Let me see them," said the angel. When the sack was opened, it was empty.

Then the angel asked him, "Just what are you worried about?"

"Just two things," The man said, "yesterday and tomorrow."

"Why worry about them?" the angel asked. "Yesterday is gone and too late to worry about. And tomorrow isn't here yet. So how can you worry about it?"

The angel told him he didn't need any sack to carry around, and so the man threw it away.

A Smile for Your Journey - Baptism of a Cat

Johnny's mother looked out the window and notice him "playing church" with their cat. He had the cat sitting quietly and he was preaching to it. She smiled and went about her work. A while later she heard loud meowing and hissing and ran back to the open window to see Johnny baptizing the cat in a tub of water. She called out, "Johnny, stop that! The cat is afraid of water!" Johnny looked up at her and said, "He should have thought about that before he joined the church."
