DAY OF REFLECTION

There are times in our spiritual life, when we seem to be drudging along, lagging behind and wondering how we can ever get back into the race that we are supposed to run. Is this perhaps the time for you to take a look at the direction your life is taking, lest you run off on the wrong path? Getting off, even if it's only one or two degrees, gets you further and further away from your goal.

Jesus, in His busy schedule, told His disciples: "Come away with Me by yourselves to a quiet place to get some rest."

We would like to take the opportunity to invite you to "come away with Him to a quiet place" and refresh your spirit.

Our "DAY OF REFLECTION" will take place on February 16th, 2019 in the Meeting Room at St Mary's Parish, from 9am -3pm

All are welcome!

This past Thursday the EDGE youth braved the cold weather for the skating party at the East End Hall. We played board games and glow in the dark games inside, so no one got cold! We reminded the youth to be a light in this sometimes dark world! Our next EDGE is on Feb 14th at St. Mary's Church.

Our next Youth Mass and Life Teen night is February 9th. Hope to see you there!

Food for Your Journey - Pride and Humility

A stooped old man and a lively young man happened to meet one day. The young man bragged to the old timer, "Why don't you walk straight, like me? That's no way to grow old. It's all a matter of habit – at least, that's what I'm told."

The old man gave him a look of pity and said, "My dear young friend, have you ever examined a grain field and noticed which heads are bent and which ones stand up straight? If you take a good look as harvest time draws near, you will notice that the heads which are empty are standing tall and high. But the heads that make a good harvest are the ones that are filled and bending low."

The young man heard those words and passed by, slowly bowing his head. No doubt he pondered many a day on what the old man had said.

A Smile for Your Journey - Rejection at the Pearly Gate:

A cab driver reaches the Pearly Gates and announces his presence to St. Peter, who looks him up in his Big Book. Upon reading the entry for the cabby, St. Peter invites him to grab a silk robe and a golden staff and to proceed into Heaven. A preacher is next in line behind the cabby and has been watching these proceedings with interest. He announces himself to St. Peter. Upon scanning the preacher's entry in the Big Book, St. Peter furrows his brow and says, "Okay, we'll let you in, but you will have only a cotton robe and wooden staff." The preacher is astonished and replies, "But I am a man of the cloth. You gave that cab driver a gold staff and a silk robe. Surely, I rate higher than a cabby." St. Peter responded matter-of-factly: "Here we are interested in results. When you preached, people slept. When the cabby drove his taxi, people prayed."
