All the women of the parish are invited to attend the CWL general meeting on Wednesday, April 3 at 6:30pm. The rosary will be prayed for world peace prior to the meeting for those who wish to participate.

Guest speaker Jeanine Alich will speak on Northern Options. Reminder: bring in your water conservation project responses. We may only be able to do a little, but it will all add up and make us more aware of the blessing of clean water.

The CWL is selling tickets for a quilt made & donated by Helen Cousineau & Irene Grennier. Tickets on sale now at the Parish Office and from CWL members.

The EDGE had another active sports night this past week. We also discussed the Stations of the Cross and why we as Catholics lead them each Friday during Lent. Thank you to everyone in the Parish who helped with Soup & Bun!! Our next EDGE is April 4th at St. Mary's.

Our next Youth Mass and Life Teen night is April 13th. Hope to see you there!

Food for Your Journey - A Simple Diagnosis

A young man told his doctor, "I get headaches, my ears burn, I see spots before my eyes, and I can't breathe."

The doctor examined him thoroughly and told him, "Your brain isn't getting enough oxygen. At this rate, you're going to lose consciousness and go into a coma. No surgery or medicine can help you. I suggest that you quit your job and spend your few remaining days enjoying yourself."

So the poor fellow followed his doctor's advice. He quit his job, withdrew his savings from the bank, and bought a ticket for a flight around the world. The day before he left, he went to a men's clothing store to buy some new shirts. The salesman asked him his neck size.

"Fifteen," he said.

Just to make sure, the salesman slipped a tape measure around his neck. "It looks like you actually wear a 15 and 1/2 collar," he said.

"No," insisted the man. "I wear a 15 collar. I always have."

"Well, okay," the salesman shrugged. "I'll sell you shirts with size 15 collars, but do you know what will happen? They will cut off your circulation to the brain. You'll get headaches and your ears will burn. You'll see spots before your eyes, and you won't be able to catch your breath..."

The customer stood speechless. A shirt salesman had solved his medical problem, which a professional doctor had given up.

Some problems have simple solutions.

A Smile for Your Journey

There was a Catholic priest, Jewish rabbi and Baptist minister. One day the priest went to get a haircut. After the barber cut his hair, the priest wanted to pay him. The barber said, "Oh no, I will not accept any money from a man of God." So the next day when the barber went to open his shop, he saw a loaf of bread with a thank you note. Well the rabbi came for a haircut. Again the barber said, "Oh no, I will not accept money from a man of God." So the next day the barber went to open his shop and found a bottle of wine and a thank you note. Well, the Baptist minister came for his haircut. Again the barber said, "Oh no, I will not accept any money from a man of God." Well, the next day when the barber went to open his shop, he found 10 other Baptist ministers with a thank you note.

THANK YOU to everyone that helped and came out to the Annual Soup & Bun fundraiser for

It was a great turn out. We will reveal the total after all the expenses have been accounted for! Thank you for your continued support and for another great year!
