Food for Your Journey - You Can't Hide Happiness

My dad was a carpenter and he never liked to get dressed up into nice clothes. But when my mother died, Dad bought a handsome suit and was dressed to the teeth as he went heart-broken to her funeral.

A year or so later, I was in a clothing store and saw a suit similar to the one Dad had worn at Mom's funeral. I got into a conversation about Dad and his dislike for dressing up. Then the elderly salesman said to me, "My dear child, I knew your Dad. He often came in here to admire the fine clothes we stock, but he never bought any. He always said that you kids needed things more than he needed clothes."

When I heard that, my eyes filled with tears. But the old man went on to say, "Your father told me that he always felt dressed up inside himself. And I believed him. He smiled so much, he just had to be wearing a really nice suit around his heart."

A Smile for Your Journey

A priest was forced by a police officer to pull over for speeding. As the officer was about to write the ticket, the priest said to him, "Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy." The police handed the priest the ticket, and said, "Go, and sin no more."

Catholic Education Week 2019 begins on Sunday, May 5. The Catholic schools in our parish will engage in a series of events to celebrate the ongoing gift of publicly funded Catholic education. You are invited to discover what celebrations are happening in your children's school and if possible, attend. Publicly funded Catholic education has existed in Ontario since 1841 and its graduates have served Ontario and Canada very well. The current generation of students in our publicly funded Catholic schools will serve with the same spirit and generosity as their previous generations.

The CEW biblical quote is "Although you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and rejoice with an indescribable and glorious joy."
