We will now be asking parishioners to sign in when they come to mass. There will be a sheet at the entrance to be completed when coming into the church.

FROM THE PASTOR'S

As we approach the great feast of the Nativity of our Lord, we, here in St. Mary's church go the extra mile to keep the church safe and comfortable for everyone who comes in these days.

Our custodians keep the church clean and sanitize the pews and common places everyday.

Everyone wears a mask inside the church. Extraordinary Ministers of the Eucharist, the Altar servers, and the Pastor sanitize their hands before sharing communion.

For Christmas masses, sign-up sheets are placed and everyone who has signed up is given a ticket of separate colours for the mass they plan to attend.

Confessions are heard either in the meeting hall or in the confessional. SMS (Sanitization – Masks – Social Distance) is very ritually followed in our church. So, come to worship and celebrate with us in a safe, hygienic, comfortable and spiritual environment.
