Pentecost commemorates the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles and other disciples following the crucifixion, resurrection, and ascension of Christ.

WHY WE LOVE PENTECOST

1. It's a day to celebrate faith

Pentecost celebrates the faith and love that Christians have for the church and Christ. It's a good day to reaffirm our spiritual beliefs.

2. It celebrates a shared past

Pentecost is a reminder of how many religions and festivities share the same roots. It is also a day to celebrate our shared pasts and customs.

3. The church is decked out in red

We are used to seeing sober colors in churches but on Pentecost, the church altar is done up in red and priests can be seen donning red robes!
