Christians have observed Lent for roughly 2,000 years as a way to praise and memorialize Jesus's death and burial before glorifying His resurrection. One of the central traditions of Lent is fasting, the discipline of abstaining from specific foods or something you enjoy for a set amount of time. The custom of fasting during Lent has long been embraced by the Roman Catholic Church.

The rules are very distinct and include fasting on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday, and all Fridays during Lent.
