Food for Your Journey - Rash Judgement

Bishop Potter of New York was sailing for Europe. As he went aboard the large ocean liner, he found that another passenger was to share the cabin with him. After looking over his quarters, he went back to the purser's desk and asked if he could leave his gold watch and other valuables in the ship's safe. He explained that ordinarily he never did this sort of thing but he had been to his cabin and had met the man who would occupy the other bed, and judging from his appearance, he was afraid that he might not be a very trustworthy person.

The purser accepted the responsibility of caring for the valuables and remarked, "It's all right, Bishop. I'll be very glad to take care of them for you. The other man has just been here and deposited all his valuables for the same reason."

A Smile for Your Journey - Donations Accepted

When church secretary Ms. Daisy answered the ringing phone, a man's voice asked, "Can I speak to the head hog at the trough?" The secretary thought she heard what he said, but asked, "I'm sorry, who?" The caller repeated, "Can I speak to the head hog at the trough?"

Daisy thought a moment and then answered, "If you mean the preacher, then you may refer to him as 'Pastor' or 'Brother', but I'd prefer that you not refer to him as the 'head hog at the trough'!"

To this, the man replied, "Well, I was wanting to give one hundred thousand dollars to the building fund."

Quick as a wink, Daisy responded, "Hang on, sir, I believe I just heard his 'oink'."
