Food for Your Journey - Where God Is

One day a band of gypsies stopped at a farmer's well. One of them, a giant of man, dropped a bucket into the well and pulled it back up with the attached cord. He then drank right out of the bucket with large, grateful gulps...as streams of water ran down his red beard. When he finished, he mopped his face with his handkerchief, leaned over the well and kept looking into it.

Meanwhile the farmer's little son was watching all this. Wondering what the gypsy was looking at, he also tried to pull himself up to the rim of the well and have a look. The gigantic gypsy laughingly scooped the boy into his arms and pointed down into the well. "Do you know who lives down there?" he asked.

The boy shook his head. "God lives down there," the gypsy said.

"Look!"

The boy stared down into the well and all he could see was his own reflection. "That's only me," he said.

"Ah," said the gypsy, as he gently set the boy down, "now you know where God lives."

A Smile for Your Journey

A little boy always went next door to play even though his mom had warned him against doing so. This worried his mom so badly that she asked him why he was so disobedient. He replied that Satan tempted him so bad and he did not know what to do. His mom then advised him to say 'get behind me Satan' whenever he was tempted. She then built a fence around the house. This worked for a week, then one sunny afternoon his mom looked out the window and there was her son playing on the neighbour's lawn having cut a hole in the fence. "Jeremy," she yelled, "come here!" She then said, "Did I not tell you to say 'get behind me Satan' whenever he tempted you?"

"Yes," the boy replied, "I said, 'get behind me Satan,' then he went behind me and pushed me through the hole in the fence."

The CWL is selling tickets for a quilt made & donated by Helen Cousineau & Irene Grennier. Tickets on sale now at the Parish Office and from CWL members.
