This past Thursday, the EDGE youth talked about Temptation. We read the story of Jesus in the desert for 40 days and how he was tempted many times by the devil. We encouraged them to pray and focus on positive things in their lives to help them resist everyday temptations and be the best version of themselves. Our next EDGE is on March 28th, a Sports Night at St. Michael's school.

Our next Youth Mass and Life Teen night is April 13th. Hope to see you there!

Food for Your Journey - Predestination

One day a parish priest in Ireland was confronted with a religious problem right in the middle of the hayfield. A farmer was stacking his hay into piles, when he saw the Padre coming to him across the field. "See here, Padre," said the farmer leaning on his hayfork, "will you answer me one question that's been bothering me for some time. Tell me now, does God know everything?"

"He sure does," came the answer.

"Does he know whether I'm going to be saved or I'm going to be lost?"

"Hmmm, I suppose he does."

"Tell me then, why should I be bothering about trying to save my soul? I'm not going to change his mind for him, am I?"

"Well now, Bill," said the Padre after a little thought, "you and I agree that the Good Lord knows everything, don't we?"

"Sure, Padre."

"Does he know whether this crop of hay will be saved or lost?"

"I suppose he does; no doubt about it."

"Well then, Bill, why don't you get up on your tractor and go home. You're not going to change God's mind, are you?"

The farmer looked at him, got the message, and went back to saving his hay.

A Smile for Your Journey

For those who tire of excuses why people don't go to church, these are the reasons why I never wash:

1. I was forced to wash as a child.
2. People who wash are hypocrites – they think they're cleaner than others.
3. There are so many kinds of soap I could never decide which was right.
4. I used to wash, but it got boring.
5. I only wash on Christmas and Easter.
6. None of my friends wash.
7. I'll start washing when I'm older.
8. I really don't have time.
9. The bathroom isn't warm enough.
10. People who make soap are only after your money.
