Last Thursday, the EDGE youth learned about Mothers referenced in the Bible. Groups were given a mother from the bible to learn more about and her story and circumstance in the bible and what we could all learn from her. They also were reminded how to honor their own Mothers and caregivers. We pray for all mothers this Sunday, God bless them for all they do for us. We hope you enjoy your cards! Next EDGE is our wind-up on May 16th.

Our next Youth Mass and Life Teen night is May 25th.

This will be our Progressive Dinner. We are looking for homes to host. This involves cooking one course of the meal for about 20 people. We come to your house and enjoy that course, bless your home and move on to the next course. If you are interested in hosting a course of the meal or for more information, please call Kali Brady at 275-9225.

LIFE TEEN Lunches:

The next Life Teen lunch at the Northwest Catholic District School Board Office will be on May 22nd from 11:30am-12:15pm. See everyone there!

Salt & Light Discovery Camp 2019

July 8th-12th, 2019

The Fourth Sunday of Easter, Christians are invited to reflect on the meaning of God's call and to pray for vocations. Christ, the Good Shepherd, continues to lead his people through His Bishops, Priests, and Deacons, and calls many to follow Him in this way. Priestly, diaconal, and religious vocations should be a constant concern in the hearts of God's people.

Food for Your Journey - Honesty is the Best Policy

A 16-year-old boy in high school in a small American town did not even have enough money to buy lunch, when he found two 20-dollar notes on the floor of the school bus he was riding.

He promptly turned the money over to the bus driver. Instead of praising his honesty, his schoolmates called him stupid.

Another kind of honesty story comes from the United States Treasury. It has what is known as a "conscience fund." It began in the year 1811, when a man sent the Treasury five dollars accompanied by a note explaining that he had "defrauded the government" on his tax returns

Ever since that day, the Treasury has received more than five million dollars in contributions from people who needed to still that small voice inside of them. Then they felt much better.

Yes, there are still honest people around.

A Smile for Your Journey

A man in an Armani suit, Ferragamo shoes, the latest polarized sunglasses and a tightly knotted power tie emerges from his shiny silver BMW, approaches a shepherd guarding his flock, and proposes a wager. "Will you give me one of your sheep, if I can tell you the exact number in this flock?" The shepherd accepts. "973", says the man. The shepherd, astonished at the accuracy, says, "I'm a man of my word; take the sheep you have won." The man picks a sheep and begins to walk away. "Wait," cries the shepherd, "Let me have a chance to get even. Will you return my animal if I tell what your job is?" "Sure," replies the man. "You are an economist for a government think-tank," says the shepherd. "Amazing!" responds the man, "How did you deduce that?" "Well," says the shepherd, "you drove into my field uninvited. You asked me to pay you for information I already know, answered questions I haven't asked, and you know nothing about my business. Now put down my dog; it is not a sheep!"
