PRAYER: Discovery camp always needs prayers. Our prayer chapel is the centre of the camp and we count on your prayers for safety, guidance, wisdom, and spiritual conversions in the hearts of all participants. Please keep those prayers coming. Our prayer chapel on the camp grounds is open from 1:00pm to 10:00pm on July 8th, and 8:00am to 10:00pm July 9th - 11th and from 8:00am to 10:00am on July 12th. There is sign-up sheet at the back of the church. Please pick a couple hours and come out to Sunny Cove to pray for the campers and staff. If you can't come out, please pray from home. We really feel the prayers and rely on the prayer coverage to keep us going. God will bless you. The youth are the future of the church. Praying for the youth is a very important part of evangelization.

Camp will be held outside Fort Frances at beautiful Sunny Cove camp on Rainy Lake from July 8th - 12th this year. We need trucks to haul out all our supplies to Sunny Cove on Sunday, July 7th after Mass. We will also need trucks and help to haul supplies back to the church on Friday, July 12th at 3:00pm. Please help us this year if you can. The people who have been at camp all week are exhausted and need your help!! For more information email:

kalidbrady@gmail.com or call/text 1-807-275-9225 or call St. Mary's Parish at 1-

We always need a little extra help in the kitchen at camp. There is a schedule and sign-up sheet at the back of the church. If you can spare a couple or a few hours, we would appreciate it! Thank you for all the support.

The Youth Groups will be having another garage sale in August. If you have items to donate, please contact us after July 15th, when camp is over.

Food for your Journey – The Balancing Act

A young boy made the following confession.

“A couple of months ago I found a $10 note lying on the workshop floor. I picked it up, put it in my pocket, and spent it on a good meal that night.

“The next morning the boss asked around whether anyone had found a $10 note which had slipped out of his overalls pocket. I said nothing even though I liked the boss very much.

“But then I wanted to make up for what I had done. So I saved up the amount in the next weeks and shoved a $10 note under the boss’ locker and then accidentally “discovered” it there for him. He was so touched that he told me to keep the money as a reward for my honesty.

“Now I was really confused. What should I do? Was this all okay? I had stolen from my boss and lied to him, and now he rewards me for it. I felt that something was not right.

“And then an act of God straightened out the whole matter. Just today I was doing the boss a favour. I was carrying his heavy steel toolbox out to the car. It slipped and fell onto my foot and almost cut off my big toe. I almost passed out from the pain.

“Then a peace came over me. I had this coming.... This was my punishment for what I had done. Now I am at peace again.”

A Smile for your Journey – Priest Plays Hooky

The pastor was a fisherman, but he hadn’t fished in months. One perfect Sunday morning he couldn’t resist. He called up his associate priest and claimed he had laryngitis. The priest then headed out to his favourite spot. The hook hadn’t been in the water five minutes before he got a strike and landed the biggest fish he had ever caught – although he had seen bigger ones caught by others. A half hour later, he caught the biggest fish he had ever seen. Another forty-five minutes later he landed a fish that broke the world record. All this time St. Peter and God have been watching the priest from Heaven. St. Peter turned to God, and said, “How can you reward this priest? He lied. He doesn’t observe the Sunday obligation.” God smiled at St. Peter and replied, “I’m punishing him.” St. Peter was confused, so God continued, “Well, after he finishes, whom can he tell his story to?”

The third Sunday of every month will be Food Box Sunday. Bring non-perishable food items for the needy.
