We are also looking for more volunteers to read at mass (especially Saturdays). If you are interested in joining either of these important ministries, please let the parish office know.

Are you interested in becoming Catholic? Are you interested in refreshing your Catholic beliefs? We invite you to join us at an upcoming RCIA meeting. For more information contact the parish office at 274-5233. The doors are open!

The Youth Groups will be having another garage sale on September 6th from 6 – 8pm and on September 7th from 8am – noon. Set up will be on Thursday, September 5th starting at 6pm. Please drop off your items on Thursday or contact Ken Desjardins at 807-276-4079.

We will be starting our Children's Liturgy program in September. We have one volunteer already!! We hope to get a least one more so that we can run the program every Sunday during 11am mass. If you can spare a couple Sundays a month, please contact the Parish Office at 274-5233 or talk to Father Alan. Thank you!

Journey With Jesus

Jesus, we thank you for the gift of our children. They are the youngest of our seeds planted in the soil of Your church. Open their eyes so they may see the love of their community. Open their ears to hear the good news of Your Word.

Food for your Journey – Trust

There was a poor man who complained loudly that life had been unfair. “Most of those who are rich did nothing to gain their wealth.” He wailed to anyone who would listen. “They inherit their money from their parents.”

One day as the man was walking home after having expressed his bitter feelings to a crowd at the town square, Fortune appeared before him and said, “I have decided to provide you with wealth. Hold out your purse, and I will fill it with gold coins. But there is one condition: if any of the gold falls out of the purse onto the ground everything I gave you will become dust. Be careful. I see that your purse is old; do not overload it.”

The poor man was overjoyed. He loosened the strings of his purse and watched as Fortune began to pour a stream of golden coins into it. The wallet soon became heavy.

“Is that enough?” Fortune asked.

“Not yet,” the man replied.

Fortune poured in several more coins, so that the purse was filled, and then asked again, “Shall I stop?”

“Not yet. Just a few more.”

But at that moment the purse split apart, the gold coins fell to the ground, and the treasure turned to dust. Fortune disappeared, and the greedy man was left with an empty wallet.

A Smile for Your Journey

An old lady was on a flight. She was sitting beside a rich, young businessman. After the in-flight meal, she took out her Holy Bible and started her devotions. The businessman glanced at her and said, “Do you really believe all that stuff in the Bible is true?”

“Well, yes, as a matter of fact, I do,” said the old lady.

“Yeah, right...” the man scoffed, “like... what’s that guy’s name... the one who got swallowed by the whale...”

“You mean Jonah?”

“Yeah, Jonah. Do you actually believe he could have survived for three days in the belly of a fish?”

“Yes. I don’t know how,” she replied, “but I can ask him when I see him in Heaven someday.”

Feeling smart, the young man said: “Ok, but what if he’s not in Heaven because he went to Hell?”

“Then you can ask him yourself when you get there,” replied the old lady calmly.

The third Sunday of every month will be Food Box Sunday. Please bring non-perishable food items for the needy.
